WABASH FIGHT ON AGAIN

Volume of Sales Considerably Smaller Than Usual-Market

Dull Until Close.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, September 15.—The money market situation reasserted its influence on stocks to-day, and checked the ef-forts by professional operators to lift prices. The influence of the money situ-ntien was due more to the prospect of a poor bank statement than to any actual dperations in the loan market, although the 4 per cent. rate touched for money on call registered the maximum for the season thus far and served as an ad-monition of the actual scarcity of funds. The demonstration for wresting control of the whoash system from its presen

of the whoash system from its present hands caused a sharp advance in the securities of that company. There was a dread that the contest might vell a struggle between vast interests behind the nominal contestants, which might cause disastrous consequences.

Nothing developed from yesterday's rumors of further large gold engagements for import. A reduction in the price of copper was an incident of the day. The volume of sales underwent considerable shrinkage for the day, and the duliness was progressive up to the close. The day's changes are mostly unimportant.

Bonds were irregular; total sales, par value, $2,010,009.

Futures opened 2975 points up on favorable Liverpool, but realizing sales soon carried prices down until they were 698 points lower than yesterday's finals. The large movement as represented by the week's insight figures estimated at from 233,00 bales for the same week last year, doubtless had much to do with the decline which trailers were otherwise notable to account for fully, though New York was said to be selling heavily in this market. ever informed that Wise was disreputable.

Nothing was said to any member of the board derogatory to his character. What was said was solely in reference to his residence, which we had no reason to suppose was fictitious or had not been acquired in good atth. We knew Wise belonged to a good family, one of long residence and good standing in the community. No objection of any sort, however, as to Wise came to us until after his appontment and qualification. Your Honor will appreciate that the verbal complaints or criticisms of election officials, made by rival candidates or their friends to individual members of the board, are insufficient to justify their removal from office. The law gives us suthorily to remove any election officer "upon notice who fails to discharge the duties of his office according to law," No such dereliction of duty was ever brought to our attention, officially or otherwise, as to any officer appointed by us, until the recent action of the grand jury, when, in accordance with their recommendation, we "emoved all who were so charged.

Mr. Peter Krug, who was reappointed, has been an election official for four years without complaint, so far as we know, of his official conduct. He was well recommended for reappointment and has held a responsible position with T. A. Harrelson & Company for many years. We were presented with no cason why we should remove Percival, Krug or Beveridge at Second Lee, Upon the recommendation of Mr. W. D. Butler, however, Mr. F. C. Carr was appointed to the only yearney.

print that Dr. C. V. Carrington protest ed to Mr. Ebel against the appointmen of Beveridge. Mr. Ebel denies this em-phatically, and no other member of the Board ever heard of it.

Didn't Name Culberson.

Mr. L. K. Culberson was not an appointee of ours. We never knew him or heard of him until after the election. He was sworn in by the other officials at the Third Monroe on the morning of the primary election, and we are in n responsible for his misconduct.

This disposes of all the officials who were indicted by the grand jury. They are contined to the Second Precinct of Lee Ward, and Third Precinct, Monroe Ward. As to the remaining precincts of this city, we are not aware that there has been any official misconduct; in fact, the grand jury reported that in their without avail. Mr. W. A. Main took the Board a list of sive first class men who had agreed to serve them, but the Board refused to appoint them, and kept two others in office and the Grând Jury indicted them for stuiling the ballot box. "They say they were never told Wise and Percival were improper characters. That is an issue of veracity between the Board and Dr. Carrington and Mr. Epps, and the circumstances all sustain Carrington and Epps. They knew Wise was seeking to got a residence at Carmody's, for they sent his commission there. They could not have asked two questions about it without learning that Wise was trying to got a sham residence there to qualify him to be an officer at Third Monroe. They went to sleep every time when their duly required them to be awake.

this city, we are not aware that there has been any official misconduct; in fact, the grand jury reported that in their opinion the election was honestly conducted in the other precincts.

The City Democratic Committee selected the judges and clerks who officiated in the June primary. It is customary to make use of the duly qualified legal officials, but the committee is under no obligation so to do and may make such changes in any or all the precincts as it sees fit.

The fact that Percival, Beveridge, Krug and Wise were selected by the City Democratic Committee, composed of five men from each ward of the city, would seem to indicate either that no objection was made to these men serving in the primary election or else that the committee attached no importance to the off jections made against them. We simply cite this to show that these men multi have been favorably regarded prior to the primary election by the duly constituted representatives of the Democratic party.

Mr. Hancock Responsible.

Mr. Hancock Responsible.

Mr. Hancock Responsible.

It has also been asserted in the public press, without a shadow of foundation, that Mr. W. T. Hancock is not in any way responsible for the acts of this board. Since Mr. Hancock's appointment on the board there have been ten meetings; Mr. Hancock has missed only one meeting out of the ten, he being absent from the city on that occasion. He knew what business was to be transacted, however, and sanctioned what was proposed to be done. The board have conferred, fully and freely with each other about the different appointments. All elections have been unanimous, and Mr. Hancock desires to put himself on record as being fully and equally responsible with the other members of the board for all the appointments and official acts.

Now, in conclusion, we beg to submit that we are conscious of no dereliction of duty; we have had no axe to grind, and have advanced no man's interest at the expense of another. We have had in mind only a desire to perform a public duty. We have been as careful in our selections as was possible, and we have been always glad to listen to advice and have sought it on all occasions. We have felt that our respective reputations were sufficiently secure in this community, where we have to listen to advice and have sought it on all occasions. We have felt that our respective reputations were sufficiently secure in this community, where we have lived all our lives, to prevail against the filmsy and errate attacks that have been made upon us. We were appointed to these positions, however, by your Honor, and we are naturally anxious to measure up to your Honor's reasonable expectations, as well as that of all good clitzens. Your Honor has the right to demand an account of our stewardship. This we are ready to render at any time. We beg to remain, with great respect, w. T. HANCOCK, SAM COHEN, F. C. EBELL,
